UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT MARTY D. TREML

Chief Master Sergeant Marty Trembl is the Squadron Superintendent, 554th RED HORSE Squadron, 36th Contingency Response Group, 36th Wing, Andersen Air Force Base, Guam. In this position he serves as principle advisor to the commander on all issues affecting the Airmen assigned. He is responsible for the force management, mentoring, training, and equipping of 206 Airmen, spanning 27 AFSCs to include Civil Engineering, Logistics Readiness, Comptroller, and Force Support, while providing flexible, highly skilled and mobile heavy construction capability to the Central and Pacific Commands. Ensuring personnel and resources are properly aligned to maintain a rapid deployment posture, supporting the full spectrum of military operations across the INDOPACOM area of responsibility.

Chief Master Sergeant Trembl grew up in Luxemburg, WI. He enlisted in the Air Force in 2001 as a Heavy Equipment Mechanic. He held various positions in Vehicle Maintenance until cross training into the Structural career field in 2010. Once there, he served and supported many down range missions and has served at seven assignments. His assignments include bases in Mississippi, Japan, Nevada, New Mexico, South Korea, Hawaii, and Montana. Prior to assuming his current position, he served as Operations Superintendent, 341st Civil Engineer Squadron, Malmstrom AFB, Montana.
