

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

CHRISTINE G. MANGLONA

Ms. Manglona is the Director of Business Operation for the 36th Contracting Squadron, Andersen AFB, Guam and serves as the senior contracting civilian and the Small Business Advocate. In this position, she advises the 36 Wing leadership, squadron commander and staff on matters relating to contracting and meeting the AF small business program goals. Additionally, she provides mentorship and guidance to 45 military and civilian personnel as they manage the Andersen Air Force Base and Joint Region Marianas contract portfolio valued at $506M

Ms. Manglona began her federal career in June 2001 as a Naval Acquisition Intern. She has more than 19 years of contracting experience in construction and A/E contracts, facility support services, base installation support service, and commercial purchases.

Ms. Manglona was born in Tamuning, Guam and has lived in California and North Carolina and Naples, Italy. She graduated from George Washington High School in Mangilao, Guam and holds a Bachelor's of Science in Public Administration and a Masters of Business Administration from University of Phoenix. Ms. Manglona's awards include 36th Wing Category 3 Civilian Employee of the Year for 2020 36th Contracting Squadron Category 3 Civilian Employee of the Year for 2019 and 2020; and was part of the FY20 Outstanding Operational Contracting Unit Award (Small).

EDUCATION

2000 Bachelor of Science Degree in Public Administration, University of Guam
2011 Master of Business Administration, University of Phoenix

ASSIGNMENTS

1. 2001-2004, Intern, Navy Acquisition Intern Program, NAVFAC, Guam
2. 2004-2008, Contract Specialist, Base Operations Support Contracting Office, NAVFAC, Guam
3. 2008-2009, Contracting Officer, Military Construction Office, NAVFAC, Guam
4. 2009-2012, Contracting Officer, Facilities Engineering Acquisition Department, NAVFAC, Guam
5. 2012-2015, Flight Chief, 36th Contracting Squadron, Andersen AFB, Guam
6. 2015-Present, Director of Business Operations, 36th Contracting Squadron, Andersen AFB, Guam