UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

MAJOR ELIZABETH A.M. DALE

Maj Elizabeth Dale is Commander of the 36th Comptroller Squadron, Andersen Air Force Base, Guam. She is the 36th Wing's Chief Financial Officer and is responsible for its budget planning and execution, as well as financial service support for over 3,000 military and civilian Airmen. Additionally, she serves as the Commander and administrative control for 19 Wing Staff Agencies.

Maj Dale commissioned into the Air Force in May 2010 through the AF Reserve Officer Training Corps, when she graduated Saint Mary's College, Notre Dame, Indiana. Since then, she has served in a variety of financial management positions and units. She served as the lead financial planner for the 352d Special Operations Group during Operation ODYSSEY DAWN, and guided the 35th Fighter Wing through significant sequestration budget cuts as the wing's Budget Officer. Maj Dale has also served as a member of the Inspector General team at HQ Air Force Space Command, and an Instructor of Management at the U.S. Air Force Academy.

Maj Dale was deployed to Bagram AB, Afghanistan as a Budget Analyst for US Forces-Afghanistan in support of Operation FREEDOM'S SENTINEL and the NATO-led Resolute Support Mission.
