

BIOGRAPHY

DEPARTMENT OF THE AIR FORCE

MASTER SERGEANT BRITTANY G. RECOB

Master Sergeant Brittany G. Recob is the Superintendent at the 36th Wing Legal Office, Andersen Air Force Base, Guam. MSgt Recob is the senior enlisted advisor to the Staff Judge Advocate and is responsible for the supervision, professional development, and welfare of all assigned personnel. In this role, she supports the mission of the 36th Wing, which is to provide the President of the United States sovereign options to decisively employ air power across the entire spectrum of engagement.

MSgt Recob began her Air Force career in February 2011 and attended paralegal technical training school at Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama. Prior to her current position, she was the Manager, Twentieth Air Force, Francis E. Warren AFB, Wyoming.

She is married to TSgt Adam Recob, a dirt boy assigned to the 36th Civil Engineer Squadron. They have two children, Claudia and Clyde.
